Joe, thanks for coming over today and meeting with us. I think it was a useful and productive meeting. I had a senior moment and apparently misspoke, when I told you that we had an action memo in place on this site. I don't believe that we have issued one. We just have the POLREP updates at this point. (I was thinking of another one of my removal action sites). Also, on the estimated current response cost total, we may well be below the $2 million figure at the moment. I will do some checking on that with the OSC and others. As you requested, I have attached a pdf copy of the sign-in sheet for our meeting. Take care.
